

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Dekko Recognized for Operational Excellence at Knoll Supplier Conference

GARRETT, IN – February 21, 2017 – Dekko, a Graham Holdings Company subsidiary (NYSE: GHC), announced today that the Company received the Award for Operational Excellence from Knoll, Inc., at its 4th Annual Supplier Awards Ceremony on February 13, 2017.

Knoll, a design-driven office furniture company, specializing in modern design since 1938, is known internationally for creating workplace and residential furnishings that inspire, evolve, and endure. Dekko's partnership with Knoll spans more than two decades and this recognition speaks to the strong relationship between the two companies.

"At Dekko we are committed to excellence and the success of our partners. We are humbled to receive this recognition by Knoll, as we strive to deliver excellence in all aspects of our business every day. We are especially proud of our longstanding partnership with Knoll, and what we have been able to achieve in the industry together. We are equally excited about what we'll be able to accomplish in the future together," said John R. May, Chief Executive Officer of Dekko.

About Dekko

Dekko, a wholly owned subsidiary of Graham Holdings Company, is the North American leader in workspace power and data solutions. For over 40 years, Dekko (formerly known as "Group Dekko", has been a preferred electrical distribution product solutions partner for leading office furniture manufacturers. The Company, founded in 1952, is headquartered in Garrett, Indiana, USA; has six manufacturing facilities across four states and Mexico.

More information at www.dekko.com.

# #

Contact:

John May
800-829-3101
jmay@dekko.com